

MARGARET BRITT

MARGARET BRITT is an extremely versatile and accomplished musician/entertainer (lead guitar, bass guitar, harmonica and vocals).

Margaret formed the first Australian female group "THE VAMPS" and achieved International success touring in Noumea, Taiwan, Tahiti, Philippines, Thailand, Singapore, New Zealand and the USA (appearing in 38 states including Las Vegas).

In Vietnam they received a plaque commemorating their courage for leading the first group to entertain at the front line.

During their six years in the United States they received the honour of being named "BEST FEMALE VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL GROUP" by the rock bible "BILLBOARD".

The Vamps are not only mentioned at the Real Wild Child Exhibition at Sydney's Powerhouse Museum, but are also noted in the Australian Archives for Vietnam.

On returning to Australia Margaret formed "PEACHES" the first Australian all girl vocal and instrumental group to have a number one hit record with their single "Substitute". They topped the charts for 17 weeks and the Kent Report chose the single as one of the top 100 recordings.

"PEACHES" and "THE VAMPS" are also included in the Rock 'n' Roll Encyclopaedia of Australia. Margaret is also a multi Mo Award winner, having performed for 3 years with the production show "THE FIFTYS".

Most recently she has performed solo at the Colonial Club Resort - Cairns, Radisson International Cairns, Mirage - Port Douglas and in New Caledonia at Club Med, (Hotel De La Plage - Poindimie and Koniambo Hotel Kone).

MICHEAL DERWIN

Micheal hails from Palmerston North, in New Zealand, and joined Skyz the Limit in 1997, playing bass and rhythm guitar, percussion and lead vocals.

Micheal toured extensively over the past six years, playing in New Caledonia, NZ, Northern Territory, Queensland - as far as Port Douglas, including in many inland towns, Mt Isa, Tenant Creek, Cairns, Cloncurry, including continuous touring throughout New South Wales.

Starting out in the hospitality/tourism industry, Micheal was extremely active in promotional work prior to embarking on his musical career.

During that time he honed his on stage ability by, calling club games and hosting interactive game shows and promotions. His voice has progressed from that early training to be complementary to the duo, in backing either the lead singer, singing harmony, or singing solo within the duo.
